

MACFARLAND PATS ANACOSTIA'S BACK

Commissioner Commends Civic Pride of Various Citizens' Associations.

According to Commissioner H. B. F. Macfarland, last night at a meeting of the Anacostia Citizens' Association, the various associations similar to the one across the Eastern Branch are excellent arguments in refutation that the citizens of the District of Columbia, under the present system of government here, have no public interest or civic pride. Commissioner Macfarland was the guest of the association at its monthly meeting. He expressed his pleasure at meeting the guests of that hustling section of the District, assuring them their needs would ever be deemed worthy of consideration by the Commission. Commissioner Macfarland said the question of filling in the Anacostia flats would be vigorously pushed at the next session of Congress, as the conditions near Anacostia demand betterment. Until the title to the land along the flats is settled, Congress, the Commissioner said, will hardly grant an appropriation. An impromptu reception followed Commissioner Macfarland's address, the members of the association being introduced to him by Dr. James A. Watson.

THREE NURSES READY FOR THEIR LIFE WORK

The annual commencement and graduation exercises of the Georgetown University Hospital Training School were held yesterday in Gaston Hall. Dr. Samuel S. Adams delivered the address to the graduating class of nurses, having for his subject "The Diploma of the Nurse and What She Owes to It." The Rev. David H. Russell, president of the university, presented the three graduates—Misses Emelyn P. Causey, Virginia; Mable B. Stewart, Indiana; and Theresa M. Lawlor, Ireland. Dr. George M. Kober, dean of the medical faculty, presented each of the graduates with the medal of honor.

H. B. DAVIDSON HEADS NEW U. S. TRUST CO.

H. Bradley Davidson has been elected president of the new United States Trust Company, of this city, succeeding Daniel N. Morgan, who resigns to take the position of auditor of the corporation. Mr. Davidson is the senior member of the real estate firm of Davidson & Davidson, and has been associated with a number of financial institutions of the District. He is at present a director in the Commercial National Bank and Potomac Fire Insurance Company, and was one of the organizers of both institutions.

The United States Trust Company will open for business on Monday next, the payment of the $500,000 of their capital having been completed, as required by law.

Three-Cent Boost in the Cost of Beef Hits Family Provider Solar Plexus Blow

Prices of Different Cuts Now and a Month Ago.

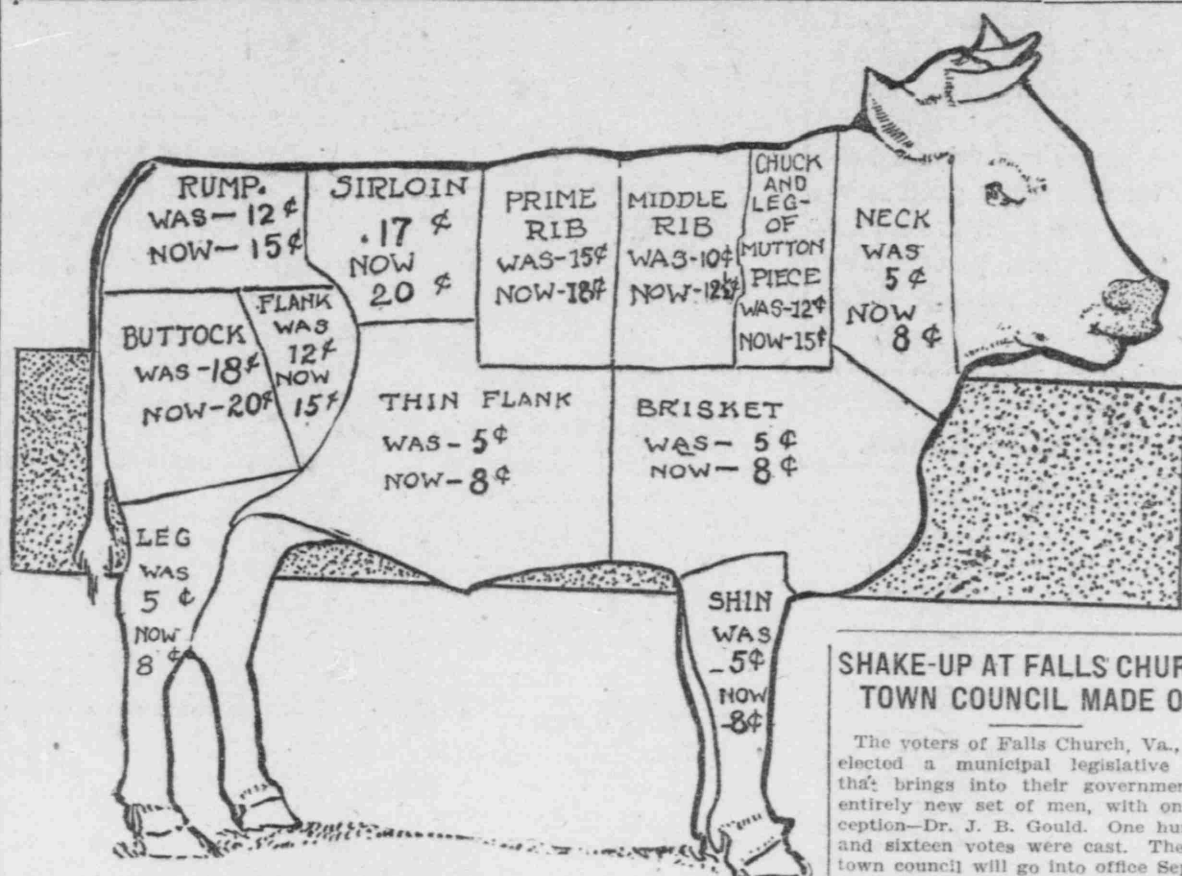

DIAGRAM OF STEER, Showing Market Quotations of "Rich Man's Staple."

SIRLOINS GROWING SCARCER

"Praps the old cow did turn that historic nursery-tale flip-flop over the moon after all. It doesn't seem so unreasonable just at present, in view of the alarming way the price of beef is soaring. Pretty soon a skyscraper capable of making a fifty-knot hump will be the sole means of overtaking it."

A boost of 3 cents per cut in every section of a beef "critters" anatomy—that's what the provider for an American family is up against now.

Steak a Curiosity?

Is the time at hand when a slice of sirloin steak or a piece of brisket will be as great a curiosity on the dining tables of the humbler classes as a plebeian frankfurter sandwich is on a Connecticut avenue sidewalk? Railroad mergers and Panama canals take a swift turnabout to the rear now that this beef question has come to the front.

Goodness gracious! Why, these meat men are charging more for even a hasty slash of the shin of a bull! If this thing is kept up, a brace of choice pickled cow's ears will bring fancy prices before many more moons, and street riots may be expected over any old morsel of chuck which chances to tumble out over the tailboard of a butcher's cart.

"Rich Man's Staple."

Sirloins, for instance, is now 20 cents. It was 17 cents. Beef, the "poor man's food?" Well, it may have been once, back in the dim and dusty past, but the "rich man's staple" would more properly describe it today. The label of luxury has been branded on every beef critter from Jumping-Off Promontory, Me., to the Golden Gate. All there is left for the working man to hope is that nobody will get fresh and jump the price of prune pie, peanuts, and parsnips.

Meanwhile, the butcher and the market man are building luxurious castles in Spain with the money they're making.

PRINTERS NEEDED AT THE G. P. O.

The call made last week through the Civil Service Commission for fifty printers for temporary service in the Government Printing Office having failed to secure a sufficient number of compositors to meet the requirements of the office, the Public Printer has caused a second call to be issued.

A number of the compositors who have already reported for duty are from the cities of Philadelphia and Baltimore. A number of the printers in Washington who received the calls have declined the appointments because of the brief period the work is to last. The composing divisions, it is stated, show a healthy volume of work, larger than usual for this time in the year, which is in marked contrast to the conditions prevailing in the bindery divisions.

"PREPS" GRADUATE FROM ST. JOHN'S

The academic and preparatory departments of St. John's College held their annual commencement exercises in the assembly hall of the college last evening, a large number of relatives and friends of the students being in attendance. The Rev. Edward G. Fitzgerald, O. P., presided and presented the certificates to the young graduates. Interspersed throughout the program were a number of songs, recitations, playlets, and instrumental selections, many being of a patriotic order in honor of Flag Day.

The closing exercises and conferring of the degrees upon graduates from the collegiate departments will take place this afternoon in the Columbia Theater at 4 o'clock.

DATE FOR PROTESTS SET.

REMNANTS TOMORROW

That means great bargains

Long utility coats $6.75

WORTH $15.00. We have but 28 of them. "Too good and too cheap to talk about."

Assortment of plain tan or plaid effects. Will cover the dress entirely. They are water-proof. Good to wear when traveling, automobiling, or in bad weather. Get one—or you'll be sorry.

Second Floor—S. Kann, Sons & Co.

This list tells why the third floor remnant section is crowded every Friday

Remnants here always sell for less than same goods off the piece. And regular prices are really low enough. But every Friday in order to make a "noise" we put out specials like these. Count that you'd pay the quoted value for any kind if you bought it at any other department. And remnant lengths are so very much less.

Balance, choice, 9c

Hundreds of styles, the lot including the entire balance of our recent purchase. These are good at $20 to $25 a yard. Lengths are useful, and worth three and four times the closing out price.

3rd floor—S. Kann, Sons & Co.

Trimmings, 5c yard Worth up to 25c

Just a few yards of a kind and to make short work of this quantity, we've put price down so low that you'll be compelled to buy from a sense of economy. The trimmings are in tri-color effects suitable for hat bands and belts; one-sided effects in silk or velvet and Persian designs. Quite a number of kinds—and choice is offered tomorrow of the entire lot at a yard 5c.

1st floor—bargain tables

$1.25 percale wrappers for 79c

The neatest kind of house dress. Made of percale, white grounds with neat stripes and figures; yoke effects; all sizes. You'll not pay less than $1.25 for a wrapper of this character anywhere.

All sizes in the lot—but because the quality is limited the price will be but 79c.
